Registration

Another new school year at Benjamin Franklin High began on September 7 for the 1983-84 school season. Many students arrived early before the Registration rush. As for the underclassmen of last year, it was reuniting with old friends, teachers, and the making of new ones. Before the in-person registration, the underclassmen were assembled in the auditorium for an orientation of class requirements for graduation and also school rules. In the rush to the lower gym, the problem was finding the right classes that best fit many schedules. The freshmen, who numbered around 500, were pre-registered by computer. Seniors had the hassle of finding a Senior elective that was right for their schedules. The meeting of many new faces filled the lower gym, lockers were issued, and underclass pictures were taken.

Fall Homecoming

Homecoming 1983, with the theme "Fascination: A Celebration of Ourselves" was kicked off on October 3rd with "Sweats Day." Quakers demonstrated exceptional spirit on that day as well as on the other days, including "Nostalgia Day", "Clash Day", "Dress-up Day", and "Quaker Colors Day", by wearing the appropriate attire. The theme was intended to promote spirit and also provide students with a means of getting involved in school-sponsored activities. Highlights and events for the week were a fashion show of student-made or designed clothing, a Food Fair (destined to become an FHS tradition!) put on by various school organizations, performances by the FHS band, play productions class, and 83-84 cheersquad, and of course, the traditional football game, (against Ingraham) followed by the Homecoming dance.

"Fascination" was a success in every way, for students and faculty enthusiasm was at its peak, and those involved had alot of fun.

Football

This year the 1983-84 football team put out a strong performance. The Quakers lost a lot of key players from last year, but the talent was still with them. The players came very close to winning the Metro title, but fell short by losing to Blanchet, 14-7, and to Ingraham, 16-12. The men displayed a powerful performance in their upset win over Franklin's long time rival, the Garfield Bulldogs.

The Quakers were ranked second in defense, third in offense, and contributed to the Metro All-city team. On offense was Derrick McClinton, Quarterback, and occupying receiver positions were Victor Wood and Tony Zackery. The Metro defense squad had Junior Solomona on the defensive line and Victor and Tony in the defensive backfield.

Long time Coach Byron Johnson and his staff did an outstanding job. Johnson has had to rebuild his team year after year, but with his skills, talent, and good quality players, he has been able to show successful seasons.

Volleyball

With mind's dead set on winning and the talent to do just that, the Franklin "Spikers" had a successful season. The girls had a commendable league record of 8 wins, and 5 losses and a trip to the district playoffs where they placed 8th. Led by Seniors Audrey Elmore, Dana Jackson, Julie Meyers, Lori Takashima, and Chris Winkel, the girls went out this season to show the other volleyball teams in the Metro league what they could do. Quaker women lit up the court setting, spiking, stretching, leaping, and even diving to send incredible shots sailing over the net.

For a team which lacked in height, the tallest at 5'4", the girls left the competition and their spectators in awe. Coach Loretta Day believes that Franklin, with their sharp skills and dedication, was the best team in the state, for their height. Capturing the team awards this year were Lori and Dana for "Most Valuable Player", Audrey and Chris for "Most Inspirational", and Junior Michelle Lee for "Most Improved". The Quaker's outstanding athlete, Lori Takashima, was 1 out of 8 girls in state chosen by King 5 for their All-Around Allstar team.

This year's Cross Country team proved to be a group of skillful runners. The men had a competitive season and placed 6th in the Metro league. Some of the Quaker men were inexperienced, but they all strived to do their best. The Franklin runners ended the season with a 4-5 record. Senior Dennis Chin was the captain of the team and won the award for "Most Inspirational". Rick Reinert ran the most miles this season and Dan Cobb won "Rookie of the Year".

The women did exceptionally well and placed 4th in Metro. The Quakers had a strong record in which they won 4 meets, lost 2, and tied 1. The first place Metro champ was Franklin's captain Nancy Leong, a talented junior. This is the second year in a row that Nancy has captured the title. Sophomore Cindy Leong did just as well and came in 4th place. Cindy feels the team did an "excellent" job this season.

Coach Don Bundy had quite an experience this season and believes that the prospect for next year is better.

Girl's Soccer

The 1983 girl's soccer team got off to a slow start, but once members adjusted to each other and learned to play as a team, the Quakers were soon on their way. The girl's who turned out were new players, many of whom were inexperienced underclassmen. The beginning was tough and co-captains Betsy Lee and Maggie Fleet did their best to enhance team co-operation along with a positive outlook.

The first year at Franklin for Coach Alan Zahajko proved to be a learning year. Zahajko's coaching method took some time and effort to get used to, but the girl's dedication made things easier.

The team was successful with a league record of 2 wins and 10 losses. The Quaker women had a lot of team spirit and potential to carry them through the competitive season, although the record wasn't what everyone expected. The women hope to be better next year with many returning players.

Golf

The golf team, coached by Nancy Rybock, had a challenging season this year, which led to a defeated record of 0-6. Senior Colin McCracken was the only returning varsity player who went to the Metro playoffs along with sophomore, Mike Cole. Returning golfers Leslie Van Allen and Derrick Radisich also contributed their talent and effort to help build the foundation of the team. The majority of the team were newcomers, but with positive attitudes and "driving" dedication, the Quakers made this an eventful year to gain the experience and knowledge of golf.

The Quakers did exceptionally well for being such a young and well-rounded team. Overall, the golfers maintained the competitiveness of the sport with spirits held high to have an enjoyable season.

Girls' Basketball

A win-loss record of 19-0 gave Franklin's 1983-84 Women's Basketball team the Metro AAA League Championship and the highest rank in Washington state. The girls were tough, invincible, unstoppable, and simply magnificent. Obviously, the girls had a great season due to the unbridled talent of senior Jeannie Villarino, a three-year starting guard, whose passes never ceased to dazzle the crowd and perplex opponents and sophomore Shannon Smith, our six foot two center. Also on the team were senior Lori Takashima, juniors Cutonya Ballard and Shaun Burleson, and sophomore Rochelle Walker who has the capability of executing plays with perfect precision.

The Quakers progressed to the District Playoffs where they proved they were a championship team by ousting Sammamish, Juanita, and Interlake to win the Metro AAA District title. At Regionals, the undefeated Quakers beat Oak Harbor and advanced to State with a record of 23-0. The competition was incredibly tough and the Quakers end their winning streak by losing to Walla Walla, who eventually took State. The girls got their act together in the second round and showed Bellarmine their extraordinary talent by winning by over a 20-point margin. The third and final game, a loss to Rogers, left the girls in sixth place in the State. The season ended with an encouraging overall record of 24-2.

Outstanding athletes Villarino and Smith were selected for the All-Metro AAA First team. This was the third time for Villarino, who stands 5'4" and is undoubtedly one of the best guards in the state. It was the first time for Smith, an honor student who also received the Most Valuable Player Award. Burleson and Walker were also selected for the Second team. Coach Tom Williams was honored with the Coach of the Year Award for the Metro AAA League. For such individual talent and exceptional skill, Villarino and Smith captured the award for the P.I. and the Times All-Star Teams, along with Coach Williams. All the team members displayed competitiveness, good sportsmanship, and spirit throughout the year. Villarino, the miraculous point guard, had the most exciting season and the best of three years of basketball by ending her senior year by making the All-State tournament team. Franklin High is very proud of what Coach Williams, Assistant Coach Smith, and especially the girls accomplished during the long, prestigious six months of play. Congratulations to the mighty Quaker crew!!!

Boys' Basketball

The Franklin High Quakers basketball team had a roller coaster season. The Quakers started out fast, ranking as high as 2nd place in the state. Due to injuries and illness, key players throughout the season kept the team from establishing any consistency which was needed to qualify for the state tournament. Considering all these setbacks, the spirited Quakers were still able to place fourth in the Metro AAA league. The players had an overall record of 10 wins and 10 losses which included a win from the Las Vegas, Nevada holiday tournament earlier in the season.

The Quakers also defeated Foss, Nathan Hale, Ballard, Roosevelt, Ingraham, Garfield, Lakeside, El Rancho and Richmond. A check through all the box scores during the season showed that the first string only started in two games together.

Co-captain Mark Kaska, of All-Metro caliber who dominated his position, will be moving on to the Pac-Ten next year to play at Oregon State University. Kaska was also nominated from a field of 500 players across the country for the McDonalds All-American Basketball Team.

Derrick Mc Clinton, Darryl Saffo, Victor Wood, and Tony Zackery, to name a few, will also be leaving the team among other seniors, and only three players will be returning from the Varsity squad. It will be a rebuilding year for coaches Dave Belmonte and Wayne Floyd next year.

Wrestling

The Quaker matmen, led by four returning lettermen Doug Muneta, Alex Umino, Rick Freitas and Aaron Galloway, completed their season with a successful record of 5 wins and 4 losses. Originally a team which consisted mainly of inexperienced underclassmen, the young men soon developed into a strong group of accomplished wrestlers under the skillful technique and guidance of coach Fred Sato. The team continued to amaze their fans and challengers with surprising speed, skill and strength to place a respectable fourth in the AAA Metro tournament. Meanwhile 101 lb. Derrick Radisich and Statebound Doug muscled their way to individual Metro titles while Rick and Leon McKenzie captured 2nd place titles. These four, along with the talents of Alex, continued to District Playoffs.

With so much improvement with such a young team, the potential of such a dedicated group of wrestlers seems unlimited. The experienced gained this year will prove to build a solid base on which to continue Franklin's winning tradition!

Gymnastics

The 1983-84 Gymnastic team did incredibly well this year with a league record of 6 wins and 1 loss. The girls happily came in 2nd in metro and went on to districts where they competition was tough. Sophomore Katha Kusakabe went even farther with her great talent and advanced to state. Katha placed 9th on the beam and a respective 4th on the floor exercise which shows just how outstanding she is. Among other gymnasts are senior Deann Green who placed 4th in metro and junior Heidi Hedges who also placed quite well.

Coach Chris Gresso experienced his first year at Franklin and proved that he wanted to build a strong and winning team. After a trying season last year, Coach Gresso was very helpful in rebuilding this year's team. One factor which might have had some impact on the girls was that Gresso is a gymnastics judge. Overall, the gymnasts demonstrated individual skill and great potential throughout their commendable season.

FRANKLIN
QUAKERS

The year imagined and described in Orwell's 1984 arrived. The English language has not developed into "Newspeak," although we certainly hear daily usage of technical, computer language, and popular jargon, which tend to verify the possibility of its emergance. Politicians often expect us to perform Orwellian "doublethink", causing us to accept as logical and perfectly tolerable some situations and ideas which we do not understand, and which we would abhor if we understood them. "Big Brother" exists in many forms, from obvious power-figures in our institutions to suggestive manipulators in advertising and merchandising.

Franklin High School has been for us, the class of '84, a place where we begin to decide how soon 1984 actually happens, what we can do to further or to hamper its development. Perhaps an alteration of the three slogans of the "Party" could serve as a guide for us as we leave:

Peace is the lack of War;

Freedom is the lack of Slavery;

Strength is the lack of Ignorance.

Ken's pen strikes again.

Working hard to make a deadline.

Putting together a satisfying high school yearbook takes much hard work, dedication, time and patience. This year's annual staff consisted of students, grades 10 through 12, who were concerned about making the 1984 Tolo great. They spent numerous hours working together making layouts, alphabetizing pictures, cutting, pasting, typing, and organizing, merely a few of their duties. Meeting these deadlines is one of annual staffs biggest priorities. Although it is a grueling and not-so-glamorous job, it has it's reward at the first glimpse of the finished product. Someone must do the job; the members of this year's staff were proud to have it be them.

Founded this year by co-presidents Loan Nguyen and Paul Nelson, the creative new art club of Franklin high school offers interested and talented art students an outlet for their creative skills. The goal of the club is to combine individual growth with group projects to give the interested art students a more enriched education. In this club, members are taught new techniques, given extra attention to searching for or developing their special skills, and an opportunity to share ideas and technical knowledge. Their activities have included a community project for a new senior citizens center, art shows at various banks, and fundraisers.

Associated Student Body-1983-84

The Associated Student Body Officers are Peter Weschler: President; Patricia Hardney: Vice-President; Cheri Brooks: Treasurer; Deann Green: Secretary and Victor Wood Chairman.

The Associated Body this year has been working hard. They helped with registration first semester and they took a big part in making our new principal feel welcomed here.

The A.S.B. has been working hard to meet their budget, because even though A.S.B. cards are $25.00, they only get about $2.00 from them.

They took a large part in the pancake breakfast and have devoted a lot of their time towards helping with the Haunted House, dances and Concession stands.

They have tried to get students more involved this year & they have done a great job of it.

I wish you the best next year (equipment, students) and I hope your career at Franklin will continue for years to come. Thank you again for all that I have done.
In Christ's Name,
Peter Weschler 84
from your class.

Mr. Thompson
I have really grown a great deal in your class. I really appreciate the physics I have learned and the college preparation that your class has given me. I really wish that I would have applied myself more to the class but I applied myself enough to get a great deal from the class. there have been times when I aggravated, but my overall feelings from this class will always be positive.

1983-1984 Class Officers

The Senior Class Officer are Chris Winkel: President; Maggie Fleet: Vice President; Dina Woo: Secretary; Audrey Elmore: Treasurer; and Kathryn Ekstrom as chairperson. The Junior Class Officers are Val Gray: President; Lisa Kaiser: Vice President; Amelia Sewell: Secretary; Jill Nishi: Treasurer and Zachary Fleet as chairperson. The Sophomore Class Officers are Cindy Leong: President; Mary Dong: Vice President; Mai Yuen: Secretary; Steve Harriott: Treasurer; and Sandy Bacher: Chairperson. The Freshman Class Officers are Lanita Hildreth: President; Roselyn Mc Kenzie: Vice President; Holly O'Brian: Secretary; Katie Gosnell: Treasurer; Michelle Burton: Chairperson

Senior Class
The Senior Class started the year with a Senior dessert night that brought a lot of families together which went real well. They sold carmel apples at both food fairs and promoted Homecoming with signs on the gym wall. They held a candy sale, sold concessions at the basketball games, and sold Pancake Breakfast tickets. They have been working hard on the Senior activities such as the luncheon, trip, prom, party, and breakfast.

Junior Class
Next year the junior class will be the first class to have gone to Franklin for four years. They are the first class to send out a junior class News letter on what they have been doing and will be doing in the future. This year they have been financially successful. They had a candy sale, sold both Homecoming and Halloween grams. They sold balloons for the football games and have worked at the food fairs we had this year. The Junior Class had a great year.

Sophomore Class
The Sophomore Class has had a busy year working at food fairs and concession stands. They raised a lot of money for their class at the basketball games selling candy bars. The class conducted bake sales, lumpia sales, and sold balloons.
The Sophomore class officers thought that this year, overall, was a very successful and hope for more participation in the following years.

Freshmen Class
Coming into Franklin and learning to feel "at home" at a new school is not always easy, but the Freshman class of '87 did a good job of fitting in. This spirited group of ninth graders worked hard to make money through fundraisers. They consisted of fun activities such as a poster sale, selling concessions and the pancake breakfast ticket sale.

Dear Mrs. Thompson,
Hello! How are you? Good. I hope. It has been an experience being in your Physics class. You teach a fun and challenging course. It will surely expose me to the "college" life! Take care. Bye!
Sincerely,
Dina Woo

The Quaker State Band started out the year by putting on two spectacular marching performances during the 1983 football season. Each of the PRIDE showing members demonstrated their dedication, interest, and enthusiasm in both halftime performances. This was the first time in several years that Franklin has had a Marching Band, thanks to Director Ray English. Students and staff at Franklin greatly appreciate his efforts. Hopefully, the Marching Band will continue in the great tradition it has started.

Concert Band

This year's Concert Band, under the direction of Ray English, has become a musically stronger group as a whole during the 1983-4 school year. As new director of Franklin's Band, Mr. English set future goals upon arriving as Music Department Head in November. Few goals have been left unfullfilled and all will agree . . . this was a great year for band members to remember!

Black Student Involvement

This year B.S.I. was made up of a very interesting group. They encouraged more of our black students to join honors society, bring up grades and to reach out for what could and should be theirs. B.S.I. sponsored the Martin Luther King assembly, the Talent Show, and helped raise money for the Brennan King and Al Larkins Memorial Scholarships.

Advisors Mr. Mitchell, and Mrs. Pitre.

Bel Canto

This year our small but talented Bel Canto Choir did tremendously well under the direction of our new Music Department Head, Mr. English. The Bel Canto Choir is another fine example of how well we as students at Franklin High work together. They performed at the Seattle Center, Bayview Manor, Mercer Middle School and many concerts and assemblies here at Franklin. Dorothy Schirkolfsky, and Rochelle Williams made it to all-state.

Quaker Spirit

Being a cheerleader takes a lot of hard work and time. The minimum requirement for a cheerleader is that they have a maximum of spirit. The 12 spirited girls who were chosen, had a full year, not only cheering but also volunteering to do various things. Each cheerleader begins her duties in the summer with many hours of strenuous practice. Practice is on an individual basis as well as 6th period every school day with the squad.

During the summer, Franklin's squad attended cheer camp to perfect the routines and master their yells which led them to participate in the Battles of the Metro Cheerleaders. Picked by their peers, each girl is elected to represent the spirit of Franklin High.

This year's Concert Choir went extremely well despite minor obstacles such as lack of male enrollment, and not having a music teacher for the first two weeks of school. One of Franklin's newest faculty members, Mr. Ray English, has brought this year's Concert Choir to new heights. He well-liked by all of his students, and has a strong interest in making Franklin's music program work for all.

Concert Choir also helps students who are somewhat shy by singing in perfect unison. After a short while, the shyness aspect is dissolved and the individual may go from singing solos in front of the choir, to performing solos in front of an auditorium full of people.

Mr. English also teaches a very important part of singing; learning how to read music. Students learn how to read musical notes and use them in vocal form. The students have learned quite a lot this year, and Mr. English hopes that more people will get involved in the Choir in the next school year and the future years to come.

Chess Club

Chess Club. Duel, or game? Sport, or activity? No one really knows. But what the students of Franklin High's Chess Club do know, is that playing Chess is an exciting, much anticipated experience that is enjoyment for all who are enrolled in this afterschool event. The Chess Club meets four days a week, Monday through Thursday.

The members of Chess Club are very proud of themselves, and for good reason. They are presently ranked sixth in Metro out of sixteen teams, and the team has a very valuable asset; Joel Atienza. Joel has had two consecutive undeafeated seasons with the Franklin Chess Club, and is presently Washington State's individual Chess Champion. He has also been the Metro Chess Champion for two years in a row. "We are very proud of Joel's accomplishments.", remarked Chess instructor, Mr. David Humphrey. "He is a definite asset".

Chess is based on strategy, and competitive logic skill. It also requires in- depth thinking and concentration. The Chess Club participants did well in the State Tournament held February 25 and 26.

Instructor David Humphrey says that the Chess Club improves skills by playing. "I learn more by play than by actual instruction." Mr. Humphrey discusses strategies with his students, skills and about how and how not to make certain moves. These students are truly dedicated to Franklin High and the Chess team.

In deep concentration is Mel Columb.

Play Productions

The Play Productions class had a successful year. In the fall they did a comedy by Woody Allen, "Don't Drink the Water." While Play Productions was working on their play, the Drama I class put on a childrens show for different elementary schools. They did, "A trickster Hare's Feast." It was directed by student director Carleen Lindquist who helped make the show a success. In the spring the Play Productions put on a musical directed by Mr. Lee Parker with the help of Music Department head Ray English and choreagrapher Mwanza. The musical show was a total success, with everyone working hard and doing their best.

Filipino Club

The Filipino club had many goals this year. One of them was to unite the American born with the Philippinne born, so everyone with Philippine heritage become friends. One attempt to unite everyone together was having a meeting in the library with all students of Philippine heritage. The Filipino club throughout the year had lumpia sales and with the money earned took a field trip. There was also an International week in which they dressed in costume and participated in dances. They are hoping to have a Tagolog class next year, so the American born Filipinos will get to know their culture better.

French Club

The French Club, headed by Ms. Suzanne Kline, consists of twenty-two students who are very involved in the French culture and way of life. They have been working hard on foreign exchange programs and they had a French dinner in February that was very successful. The club participated in the school's Food Fair by serving several French dishes. They all share the French language and culture, and hope to print their own newspaper, which will be called "La Plume." The president of the club is Dorothy Schirkofsky.

Gentlemen's Elite

Victor Wood leads the Gentlemen's Elite in an organizational meeting

G.E. is a group of men trying to improve themselves inwardly and outwardly while striving for excellence academically, athletically, and socially to prepare for life after high school. Their goals are to raise money for scholarships and to improve their academic ability. G.E. has had much luck in their fund-raising activities this year. They provided Franklin with their own very original haunted house for Halloween and had a very successful dance in January.

Gentlemen's Elite was under the excellent leadership of advisor Mr. Robert Dickey, President Victor Wood, Vice President Les Sessoms, Treasurer/Secretary John Santos, Secretary Eric Davis, Sergeant at arms Daryll Galloway and David Jenkins - and Club Representative Tony Zackery.

Honor Society

Top to bottom-Patricia Hardney, Maisy Chan, Julie Myers, John Maeda, Kathy Jitodai, and Betsy Lee.

The purpose of the Honor Society is to give special recognition to those students who perform well academically. Those students who earn a 3.20 and above are considered members of the Franklin Honor Society while the additional honor of membership in the National Honor Society is accorded those students who earn a 3.50 and above.

The Honor Society has a number of fund raising activities including; bake sales and a turkey raffle. The funds are used to purchase gold cords for graduating Honor Society members and sponsor a special Honor Assembly and dessert for members and their families.

The students who earn membership in the Honor Society are to be commended for their achievement and high, regard for the academic aims of Franklin High School.

Jazz Lab

The 1983-84 Jazz Lab, under the direction of Ray English, had a very successful year. Under Mr. English's direction, the group gained much expertise and experience. The Jazz Lab performed at many basketball games as well as various other functions.

Newspaper

The newspaper staff worked very hard this year to put out the monthly "TOLO" a job that is not as easy as it seems. There was a lot of work done to finish each and every issue. Producing a newspaper is a group effort; everyone must work together to provide a quality publication. Being on the newspaper staff is a challenging experience. A person has to be able to meet deadlines, have some writing abilities, and mainly be responsible. It's alot of hard work, but the staff felt it was worth it knowing how much they accomplished.

Franklin had an active pep council this year. They started the year with a pom-pom sale which was a great success and also had Orange Julius sales and bake sales throughout the year. During football season pep council was the center attraction of the crowd, for they had a lot of spirit. Then during basketball season and assemblies, pep council participated as much as possible towards getting the crowd going.

Science Club

The Franklin Physical Science Association, or PI SIGMA ALPHA, began its first year here at Franklin. Created by M & M MNEMONICS, with the help of advisor Mr. Wakefield, the club was dedicated to the promotion of the physical sciences among young interested individuals at Franklin. Rather than officers, the club created a council consisting of: John Maeda, Mike Smith, Todd Selden, Patricia Hardney, and Donnie Rollins. Activities included listening to student-prepared lectures, demonstrations, and the touring of various lab complexes in the Puget Sound area. The club would like to thank everyone for their support.

S.K.Y. Club

President: Loan Nguyen helping with the handicapped.

S.K.Y. stands for Special Kiwanis Youth. It is a service club which deals mainly with the elderly and handicapped children. The club is supported by the downtown chapter of the Kiwanis, which is also a service club. Some of S.K.Y.'s activities included holiday parties, plays, movies, and fieldtrips with the handicapped. For the elderly, S.K.Y. members donated their time in service to the nearby nursing home, Restorative Care Center,. S.K.Y. has held successful fundraisers such as the shrimp chip and bake sales and the proceeds for these fundraisers covered activity expenses. Along with it's own activities, S.K.Y. participates in conjunction with its Kiwanis sponsor, such as the Apple Tag Sale in the fall and Soccer Tournament in the spring. At the end of the school year, members had the priveldge of attending the Northwest S.K.Y. Conference held in Vancouver, B.C. Canada. The officers of S.K.Y. are Loan Nguyen (President), Danial Ma (Vice President), Maisy Chan (Secretary), and Rhys Fuentes (Public-Relations). The teacher advisor for the club is Mrs. Knell-Jones and the Kiwanis advisors are Mr. George Vestal and Mr. Richard Koneizca. This year's officers as well as members are new, so the 83-84 school year has been a rebuilding year for S.K.Y.

Speech And Debate

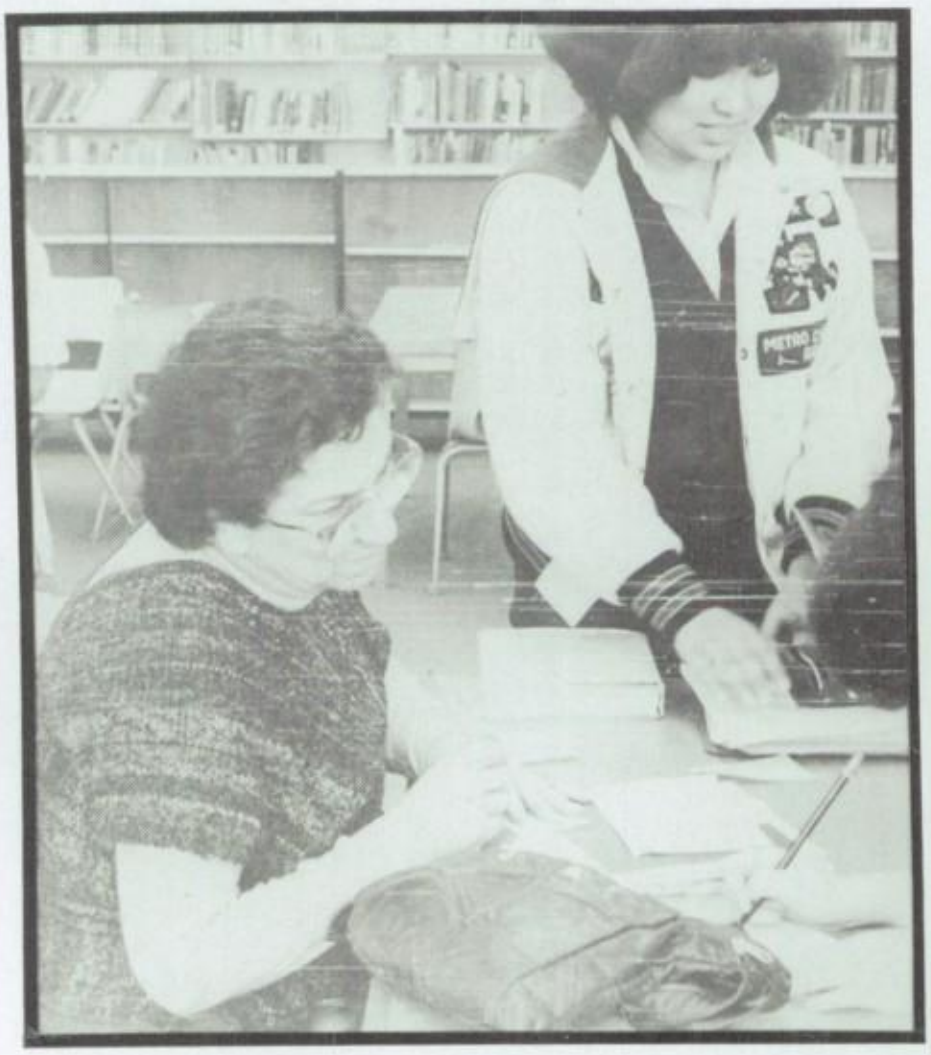
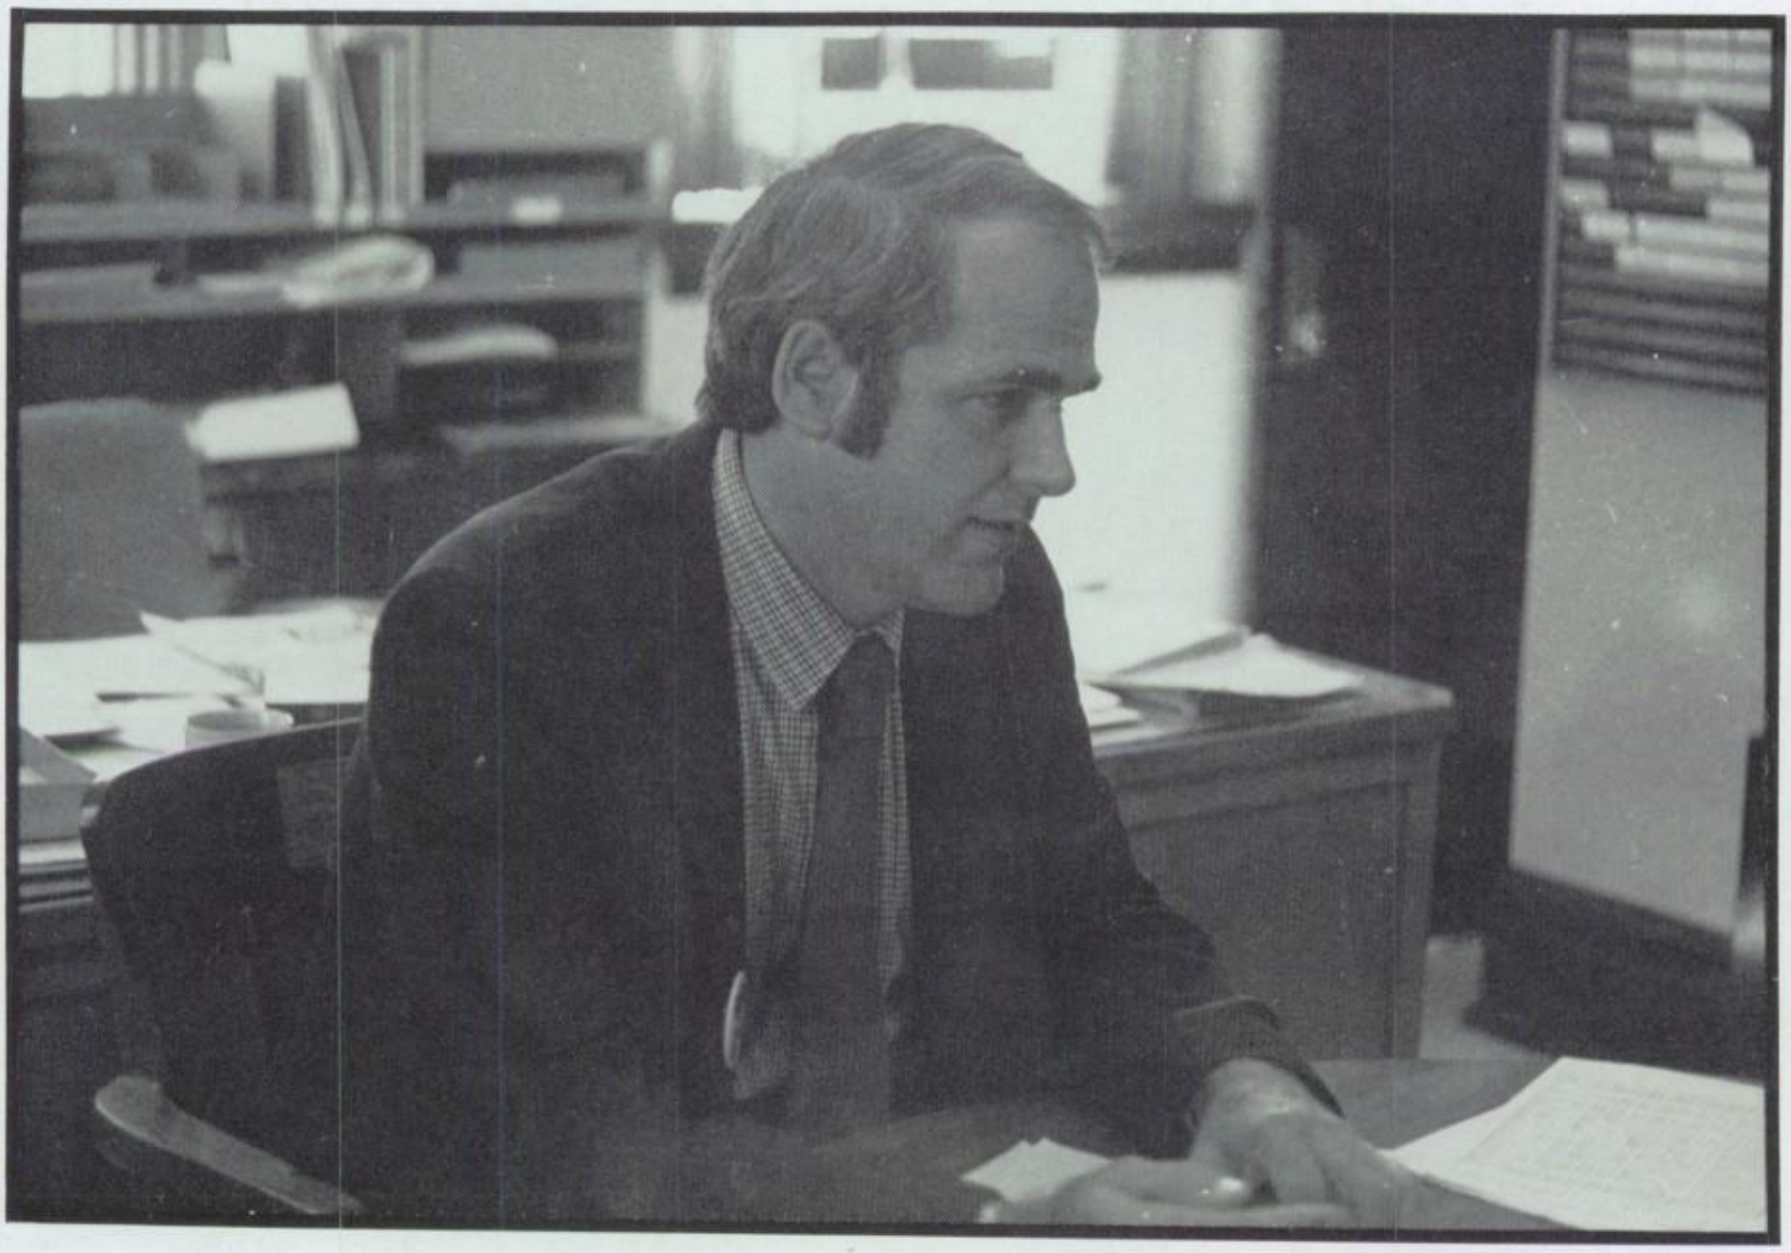
The Speech & Debate team had 42 students turn-out this year and 26 made the team. Five veterans returned; Lisa Kaiser as team captain, Maisy Chan, Vickie Doyle, Patricia Hardney, and David Youel. Many members earned enough points for National Forensic League: Ilana Guttman, Clare Ginsberg Lytle, Cara Kadoshima, Malcolm McClellan, Jonathan Pageler, Keith Petterson, Leone Pope, Dorothy Schirkofsky, Romy Schuller, Dave Vaillancourt, Jay Wampold, Mike Wampold, Mary Warner, and Elizabeth White. Awards were received by: Ilana Guttman, Mike Wampold, and Malcolm McClellan for oratory; Romy Schuller, for expository speaking; Dorothy Schirkofsky for Oral Interpretation; Elizabeth White for editorial commentary; and Maisy Chan, the Lincoln-Douglas Debate. They were advised and coached by Sara Kaplan.



Principal's Message



There are many words that can be used to describe Franklin High School. As a new principal I have expressed several, all of which seem to have one thing in common. That commonality seems to be an element of energy! Whether it be in classrooms, assemblies, clubs, athletics, or general activities, the students and staff of Franklin bring a high level of energy as indicated by their enthusiasm, dedication, and desire to always present their finest attributes.

Franklin is recognized as an out standing high school as demonstrated by student achievement and performance after graduation. The history that accompanies Franklin abounds in community and cultural richness. Much of what occurs in the school today is a product of that history, giving to our present student body and community a reinforcing element producing a supportive climate not found in many newer schools.

It is indeed an honor to be Principal of Franklin High School. Working together as a total community we can maintain the cultural/community richness of Franklin, as well as enhance the basic educational program.

Jim McConnell
Principal

The 1983-84 Tolo Editors

As our academic year comes to an end, all of us here on the 1983-84 Annual Staff would like to acknowledge and give our sincere appreciation to all the people who helped us through, because we couldn't have made it without them. Special thanks to the following: Whitehill Studios, our school's official photographers who's professional excellence provided endless assistance for organization and presentation of photographs appearing in the yearbook; Ms. Gayle Dimmitt, our advisor and leader, who we looked up to for guidence, skill, and support. Beside teaching us the importance of cooperation and teamwork, she taught us the valuable steps necessary in producing the best quality yearbook possible; Mr. Tom Wakefield and Mr. Frank Lowry for access to the darkroom during class time; Jim Palm of the Jostens Yearbook Co., for his help and advice; Danial Ma for the use of his home darkroom; and all the companies and firms that advertise to help finance our yearbook. We of the staff, wish our new Principal Mr. Jim McConnell and Vice-principal Joe Fleming the best of luck. Finally, we would like to thank O. L. Mitchell for all his assistance.

SENIOR CRUISE

The Senior Cruise was the first activity for the class of "84." This year's cruise was held aboard the "Spirit of 76" on March 16, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Approximately 165 seniors attended the trip and enjoyed the beautiful sights around Lake Union and Lake Washington, throughout the night.

The cruise consisted of dinner and dancing. The buffet dinner included sandwiches, meatballs, potato salad, tossed green salad, relish tray, and cookies. The music was provided by TSR Acoustics.

"I never met a face I didn't like, but in your case I'll make an exception," says Maggie and Patty Marx.

"May I have this dance?" Asks Dennis Chin while Sharon Eng replies "Who, me?"

Girls' Track

Franklin Quakers 1983-84 Girls' Track team started out with a winning season. Led by team captains Audrey Elmore and Calise Perkins, they defeated Ingraham and Holy Names. Coach Joe Slye and his assistants worked hard with the girls and it paid off. They traveled to Highline and Pasco, where they came in 5th out of 27 schools, in the 880 relay. They also attended an invitiational meet at Sammamish and Bellevue, where they left the Quaker name in victory! Out of the 15 girls, the team has 5 exceptional Seniors: Lynn Gardner, Rochelle Brown, Lanita Carroll, Calise Perkins, and Audrey Elmore. Although this was their last year running with the Quakers, they left with us, their determination. Remarkable newcomers, Sheila Leers, Sophia Nelson, and Kim Downie contributed to many wins. Although promising Freshman Kim Parks was injured early in the season, she will be returning next year, leading the 440 dash. Other outstanding runners are Nancy and Cindy Leong, who are also our Cross Country champions! This was their successful year. Nancy Santos, who lead the 400, is another prominent sprinter, who intends to participate next year.

Made up mostly of Freshman and Sophomores, our mighty Quakers showed their stuff. They strived for the best and it showed!

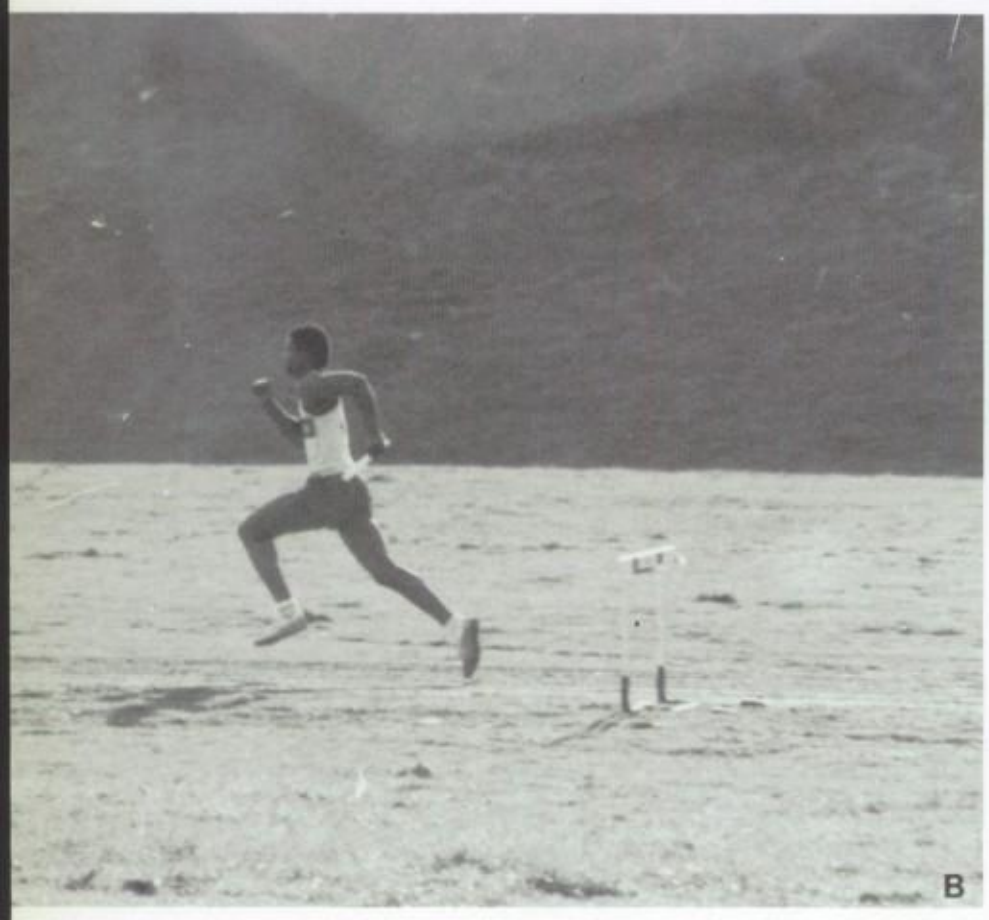
Men's Track



This year's track team was one of rebuilding. Due to the loss of many seniors, Coach Don Bundy had to find new runners, sprinters, and jumpers to keep the team a top contender in the state competition.

New faces included senior sprinters Michael Craven, David Shaw and Xavier Leggett, and sophomores Cedric Heidelberg and Sean Jenkins. New distance runners were Cam Johnson, Curtis Inahara, new pole vaulters included Jason Loui and Mike Kohler. Shotputters for the '84 season were Leon McKinzie, James Lewis and Art Hunter.

The old faces that returned for the '84 season were juniors Rick Noji, Doug Muneta, Darrel Galloway and Brent Jones. Top seniors included Dan Cobb, Dennis Chin and Tony Zackery. Among the accomplishments of the veterans, Rick Noji crossed the bar for a 7-feet high jump. The first athlete to do such a leap in Metro history. He Fosbury-flopped over the bar at 7 feet 1 in. in his first meet of the year and got 7 feet in the prestigous Pasco meet. It was also the second highest jump this year for all the U.S. high schools. Noji also touched the tape first in most of his meets for the 100 meter dash with his black running tights.

Zachery also had an outstanding season. He was Metro's top long and triple jumper. One of the highlights he had while long jumping was throwing his body 23'5 into his sand box.

Early in the year the Quakers finished second in the Pasco Invitational Meet that gave FRANKLIN tracksters a lift of motivation for the state title.

Tennis

The 1983-84 tennis team, coached by Jack MacDonald, had a lot of skilled and devoted players for a fairly young team. Varsity player Pam Nagaoka, a senior ending her 4 years of play for Franklin, has played #1 singles and doubles for the past 3 years. Nagaoka has also displayed much leadership and dedication besides her tennis skill by serving as captain for the past two years. Senior Julie Shimizu advanced on the varsity ladder this year by playing #2 singles and #1 doubles. Julie has shown her talent and technique since her sophomore year. Promising sophomore Katha Kusakabe played #3 singles and #2 doubles with Jill Nishi, a junior with much determination to play her best.

Heading the men's team was Galen Kusakabe, who played in his freshman and sophomore years and came back his senior year to play #1 singles and doubles. Two surprising team members who displayed great tennis ability were Haigo Mardikain and freshman Mike Warner. Mardikain is from East Africa and he played #2 singles and #1 doubles. Warner played #3 singles and #2 doubles and shows great potential for the coming years. Senior John Yeung played his first year of team tennis by playing #2 doubles. Seniors Julie Noji and Gjermund Johre were the Quakers mixed doubles team who managed to pull through a lot of 3 set matches with high spirits. Noji has played 3 years on the team, but it was a first for Johre, a foreign exchange student from Norway.

The season contained a lot of hard practices and tough matches, but it certainly wasn't a disappointment to the players. Their team spirit easily surpassed their competitors along with their support for one another. The team will miss all of the players who are graduating but are looking forward to the next season.

Baseball

The 1983-84 Quaker baseball team started off the season with great enthusiasm and high hopes in mind for winning the Metro title. Although there were many tough teams they never gave up hope.

The players opened the season with a practice game against the Cleveland Eagles. They showed great potential by pulling out with an impressive 5-0 victory. Assistant Coach Vern Bean commented that Franklin played quite well agaisnt their next opponents, top-ranked Ballard. Although the Quakers lost by 3 runs they played a very competitive game. The game against the Garfield Bulldogs proved to be exciting and energetic. The game went into extra-innings with the Quakers coming out on top.

Coach Tom Williams states that the team is better balanced. The Defense has improved and they are really hustling and hitting better than last year.

Returning seniors Mike Hepburn, Robbie Speers, Shelby Smith, Derrick McClinton, and Benny Lawton have helped the team to a hopeful winning season.

Softball

This year's softball team, though not very successful, is strong. With only three returning players (Romy Schuller, Patty Ferron, and Pixie McCoo) the team had amazing ease in working with each other.

They won most games due to the talent of pitcher Selena Davis, catcher Tracy Hooper, and home-run hitter Patty Ferron.

Coach Dave Humphrey says that "The team played many close games," and that they had, "...the talent to win more games than they did."

Captain Romy Schuller added after a victory against Garfield, "Next year I'm expecting a very powerful and exciting season, since there are going to be more returning members."

Besides great teamwork, the players show superior sportsmanship. Even in defeat, the Quakers can show their pride.

Soccer

Overall the soccer season has been successful, in that Franklin has left its mark as a competitive force in the Metro league. Franklin has always had the talent, but previously has had problems incorporating the talented players into a team. This year, under the guidance of Coach Rob Nelson, the socer team has obtained the level of team continuity needed to win games. Hopefully, this winning trend can be carried over to next season. The outlook is good with 8 of 11 starters returning next year.

This season got off to a slow start because of the loss of starters Wes Locke and Curran Fey due to injuries. They improved upon their return, combined with strong performances by forwards Scott Taylor, Wade Shears and Chris Walz, and outside mid fielders Zach Fleet and Thane Rosholt on the offensive end of the field. The defense, oddly enough, consisted of 2 seniors and 2 freshmen. The seniors being Mike Stearns and Brad McCollum; the freshmen being Mike Mullen and Jake Fleet. Senior Scott Whittaker played the goalie position with junior Jeff Olden, regarded as one of the best goalies in the league. Olden is returning with 7 other underclassmen next year which should make the soccer team one of the best that Franklin has ever seen.
